

Biography Dr. Beverton Moxey

Dr. Beverton Moxey is a highly respected Gastroenterologist and Internal Medicine Physician.

Over his 20-year career, Dr. Moxey has guided thousands of Bahamian patients, and their families, through their time of medical challenge. Dr. Moxey's steadfast commitment to his profession is admirable. He is loved by his patients and well respected by his peers.

Dr. Moxey's deep understanding of medical care delivery and healthcare management has resulted in his serving as Vice President of Clinical Services at Doctors Hospital Health System. In this role, Dr. Moxey is responsible for inpatient care at the country's leading private hospital.

Dr. Moxey's commitment to community keeps him grounded in his roles at the country's main public hospital, holding weekly clinics at PMH as a Consultant Physician for the past 18 years and recently serving as the Chairman of the Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee.

Rounding out his expertise in the medical profession, Dr. Moxey also serves as a Consultant and Medical Director for a leading health insurance company.

Dr. Moxey completed his Internal Medicine Residency training at University of Virginia Roanoke where he served as Chief Medical Resident and his Gastroenterology Fellowship training at Cleveland Clinic Florida. Dr. Moxey served as an Associate Lecturer in Medicine at the University of The West Indies School of Medicine. His scholarly work has been published in medical journals and presented at several scientific meetings. His professional affiliations include Fellow, American College of Physicians, American College of Gastroenterology, American Society of Gastrointestinal Endoscopy, Association of West Indian Gastroenterologist and Medical Association of The Bahamas.

Dr. Moxey's civic involvement reflects a strong commitment to his community. He worships at Christ Church Cathedral with his family. He is a Director Emeritus of the Board of the renown Bahamas Primary School Student of the Year Foundation. Dr. Moxey is a Member of Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity. He is a Life Member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc having been inducted into the Gamma Epsilon Chapter at Hampton University in 1995. A former youth baseball coach, Dr. Moxey is also an avid participant in Junkanoo and never misses an opportunity to provide that showtime performance during the Boxing Day and New Years Day Parades. He enjoys travel, great cuisine and sports namely professional football and track and field.

Dr. Moxey is happily married to S. Rosel Moxey and together they have been blessed with three children Seth, S. Reagan-Olivia and Sierra Moxey.