

Bio for Toni Callender- Lewis

Extraordinary challenges have marked Toni Callender-Lewis's life journey, but her unwavering belief in her motto, "everything happens for the best," has shaped her into an inspiring and resilient individual. Her personal experiences with Li Fraumeni Syndrome have led her to face cancer multiple times, losing her father, sister, daughter, and son to this devastating condition. Despite these heart-wrenching losses, Toni has emerged as a beacon of hope and compassion, dedicating herself to helping others facing similar struggles.

Toni's response to her lowest point during hospitalization in 2017 led to the creation of The Tiffany Treasure Hope Foundation. This nonprofit organization focuses on giving hope to children with cancer and child cancer survivors. Through the foundation, Toni and her team work tirelessly to bring smiles to the faces of these children and their families, organizing fun-filled and spirited events and field trips and providing essential support during their cancer journeys. The foundation's dedication to improving the lives of childhood cancer patients and their families is remarkable, offering emotional and financial assistance, tutoring, transportation, and various support services.

Toni's journey has taught her invaluable life lessons, emphasizing the importance of fighting for life and assisting others in their battles. Her selflessness and dedication to making a positive impact in the lives of others exemplify the true essence of a humanitarian. She understands that life is not about material possessions but rather about the joy and happiness that comes from lifting others up and making a difference in their lives.

The foundation's silent work and commitment to giving without expectations of praise or reward demonstrate their genuine compassion and dedication to their cause. Toni's journey has shown her the significance of having a tight-knit circle of family and friends who genuinely care for and support her through life's uncertainties.

Toni Callender-Lewis's story is one of strength, resilience, and unwavering compassion. Her selfless actions and dedication to helping others face cancer and adversity make her a deserving candidate for the Humanitarian Award. Her commitment to giving hope, support, and smiles to children and families in the face of unimaginable challenges is nothing short of remarkable. Recognizing her contributions through this award would honor her and shed light on the important work of The Tiffany Treasure Hope Foundation and inspire others to make a positive impact in their communities.
